Bell County Expo Center

From live music to championship rodeos, exciting motocross action and more, the Bell County Expo Center has it all. This multi-purpose entertainment and event complex was built in 1987, and is home to the Bell County Youth Fair Livestock Show and Rodeo, Central Texas State Fair, Belton Area Chamber of Commerce 4th of July PRCA Rodeo, Bell County Comic Con, conventions and countless concerts covering all genres of music.

The Dome Complex, one of the Expo's biggest draws, has arena style seating for up to 8,000 plus. The Equine/Livestock Complex is situated on the west side of the campus, adjacent to the existing Horse Barn and Exposition Building. The heart of the new Equestrian/ Livestock facility will be its 150' x 300' performance surface. Add in air conditioning, a general concourse for vendors, seating for 1000 patrons, along with an attached warm-up arena with stalls and pens, and the Expo Center's excellent location-it's a world-class combination!

Bell County Museum

The award-winning Bell County Museum is a vital resource of collecting and preserving the historical heritage of the Bell County region, from 13,000 years ago to the mid-1900s. Originally housed in the beautifully restored Carnegie Library Building constructed in 1904, a major expansion in 2006 provided an additional 10,000 square feet of space. Family fun programs and interactive exhibits make this museum a must-see.

201 N Main St. / 254-933-5243

The Gault Site

The Gault Site has been home to humans for over 13,000 years. Early people foraged the uplands and the stream valley, leaving behind stone tools and other archaeological finds. To date, the excavations have uncovered almost 2 million artifacts, some from the Clovis period. Bell County Museum is home to a permanent interactive exhibit featuring its discoveries and offers guiding walking tours.

Police Memorial

As a program of the Chamber of Commerce, the Leadership Belton Class of 2016 raised funds, coordinated the design, and worked with contractors to construct a timeless mermorial and entrance sign for the Belton Police Department. This permanent structure not only welcomes visitors but honors all public servants who are retired or currently serving. The memorial pays tribute to the lone Belton officer, Deputy Albertus Sweet, who was killed in the line of duty in 1881. Visit any time of day or night.
